

MAXIMUM ROCKNROLL PRESENTS PROFANE EXISTENCE
BOOK YOUR OWN FUCKIN' LIFE

DO-IT-YOURSELF RESOURCE GUIDE

Over the last decade and a half the world has witnessed the blossoming of one of the largest underground countercultural movements in history. Born out of youth anger (and probably just boredom), which created the original '77 punk explosion, this self-motivated and self-created movement has spread throughout the furthest reaches of industrial society. People grown tired of pre-packaged consumer entertainment and everywhere punk has spread its "Do-It-Yourself" attitude. Punk is a new folk music, where anyone can take part who has the desire for expression and freedom. Communication and interaction on a personal level is the foremost goal, with production, packaging and marketing coming secondary. The DIY movement is vibrant and as more people, ideas, thoughts and actions interconnect all the various aspects making it an ever-changing and growing movement.

Over these past years the DIY movement has grown at an unprecedented rate, in some cases fueled by profit-making trends, but for the most part on a real grass-roots level. The national and international communication within the DIY movement is what has kept it strong over the years. Through the efforts of certain individual and fanzines, people have been able to make concrete connections between people of similar interests and have created an entire underground economy based on the spreading of our own living culture and ideal. Bands have been able to promote themselves, book tours, put out records without bowing down to the corporate music industry. That is the essence of DIY. People helping other people without an eye for profit, only for creating a better world and having some fun. Networking has played a major role in making all this happen. That is why we present "Book Your Own Fucking Life" for just this tool.

We hope this magazine will help us make a giant step forward towards international solidarity for DIY people and organizations. This is the first attempt at such an interactive listing in recent years where people have been given equal and free opportunity to take part. We realize that there are a few restrictions that have made this listing in many ways incomplete. We regret that we had less time to spread the word of this project to more people but the desire to get it out before summer prevented this. As well, we realize that not everyone involved in the DIY movement does not necessarily read MRR or Profane Existence or perhaps doesn't speak English! If for whatever reason you did not know of this project before publication and therefore are not listed, we are sorry.

We hope this magazine will be at least a yearly event in order to maintain a current networking tool. For this issue the assembly of these listings was mostly done by members of the Profane Existence Collective. Hundreds of hours were spent typing in these listings and in one sense we feel elated that it's near completion, and on the other hand we are exhausted. We do not know if we will take charge of assembling this again next year. If any group or individual would be interested in stepping forward for the next issue we would strongly encourage such an undertaking. There is no reason that this project could not be rotated among different people each issue.

As for how we feel this project connects with the Profane Existence Collective... For those who do not know, we are a group of anarchists who have put together our collective energies into numerous projects; a bi-monthly magazine/newspaper, a distribution, a record label, T-shirt shop, etc. By pooling our skills and knowledge we have been able to produce our efforts into reality. However, we would not be able to do anything with our projects except sell them through the usual capitalist (rip-off) means if it weren't for our sisters and brothers around the world. We feel that by breaking free from the established capitalist system we are creating freedom in our own lives. We need the kind of global interconnections that this magazine presents the possibilities of creating. When we take control of our immediate interests this will set an example for creating a better world. We hope that the people who use this magazine will realize that DIY goes further than just a music "scene" and directly translates into the liberation of everyday life.

The idea for this magazine comes directly from need as well as inspiration from the others who have compiled similar resources in the past; namely Pete from Reaching Out Distribution, Julia From Warzone, Nabate, Maximum Rockroll, etc. We thank MRR for their part in this project and especially for patience when we lost ours. For all those involved in the DIY movement full-heartedly, past present and future, this magazine is dedicated to you.. PROFANE EXISTENCE • APRIL 20, 1992

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM TOD WHO TYPED IN 90% OF THESE LISTINGS

Before you complain to us... I've been spending hours and hours in front of this stupid fucking screen, typing in listing after listing after listing and it gets me in a really shit piss mood. Half the time I began to wonder who the fuck I was doing this for, why the fuck I was doing this, and why the fuck am I not asleep at 4 am. I guess those who know why are the ones who it's for, those who live it, breathe it, sleep it. I thought that's who would be listed inside of here too, and they are, the response was great (at the deadline), but I can just feel thousands of assholes in here, folks who are just out to make a buck off of you, folks who smelled money and dove in, folks who will take away your last piece of bread after they gave horse shit for the show you played, MEGAZINES with glossy pages riddled with corporate endorsement, etfuckingcetera. So what I'm saying is don't trust this, ask around about people in here, some of the fuckers stand out like day-glo Coors hats at a Crucifix gig, some are sly and have learned how to blend in so be careful, use your head, trust your instincts, don't get fucked. DIY is about taking back control of our everyday lives, and just like every other aspect of daily life there's gonna be some wretched fuck waiting around the corner to push your face into the ground and take whatever you have. Be careful. Do It Yourself.

I was really excited when Joel and Dan from Profane Existence first approached us with the idea of this joint project. I want to thank them for doing all the compilation (glamorous word for typing, yuck!) of the listings, and having the dedication to follow this through to the end.

I envision this being a magazine that people can pick up and from it get a good idea of how to start getting in contact with people from all over the world, either for setting up shows at clubs, or finding a label to put your record out, or, for traveling punks, the lowdown on record stores and the cool places to eat. Obviously, that's just a few ways that this magazine can be utilized, and I'm sure you'll think up your own creative schemes.

What makes a project like this so inspiring is that it's like a big "Fuck you!" to the commodization of punk by major labels and the "record industry", something that flies in the face of recent trends. I'm always amazed at the organization our "scene" can pull off if we set our minds to it. The sheer number of listings we've received for only our first issue is pretty heartening. I see this as putting us one step closer to the self-reliance we are striving for.

Okay, so here's a start as to what's out there, now it's up to you to get involved and make your own ideas happen. Hope to see your listing in here next year. Suzanne April 1992

DIY (or Do It Yourself), has become in my mind a state of being which can be applied not only to music, but to all facets of your life. Doing It Yourself is not supporting major labels, and not supporting the economic war machine. DIY is finding alternatives to frequently overpriced and occasionally substandard medical care, irradiated food products picked by under paid and abused laborers, it's finding ways around pay to play big name rock n' roll bullshit. Doing It Yourself means taking control of your life by being independent of any corporation, political/social power, or group outside of what little old you can accomplish with your own two hands and what lies between your ears.

In an era of deli trays, major label contracts, and exorbitant guarantees, this is our (MRR and Profane Existence - not to mention the great folks who sent in the listings) way of giving the finger to corporate rock and roll. This is just a smidgen of the bands, zines, venues, alternative clinics/food stores, etc. out there, (Those of you too lazy to send in listings, shame on you.) but the huge number of listings gives me great hope that not all is lost for the underground.

I'd like to think that this project this will be enough of a success that it will warrant putting one of these together every year, and that next year even more people will respond increasing the amount of information out there. (Perhaps this way, we can include more and varied listings as well.) To add to what Tod mentioned in his piece, please, if you sent in a listing, do not fuck people over. If you are a label, send people their records or zines. Promoters, treat bands well. Touring is tough enough without having to worry about shady promoters backing out on you at the last minute. Bands, you need to be honest as well. A lot of this is up to you; don't turn and run to the first (or any) major label that offers you what seems like the deal of a lifetime. A huge chunk of this movement we call punk rock is the music you all create, and you can do so much to make or break it. Basically, just be honest and nice to each other, and hopefully from all of this we can continue to create and foster a true alternative to the mainstream world.

A lot of work went into this, and to me it has all been worth it. If even just a handful of people can use it in some way which helps them or spreads information, we have achieved our goal. Remember, there are alternatives to avoid playing the money game, and even if these alternatives are more difficult or less convenient, in the long run they are totally and undoubtedly worth it. So get off of your asses, throw out those $15.00 CDs of some crappy band with big hair, and go fuck a little shit up. Just get out there and DO IT YOURSELF! Lot's of love, Lali. April 1992

The capacity here is 200. All people in bands get a food tab. As for lodging, it can be arranged. There are plenty of us involved who will let bands crash at our pads. The percentage is 60% for bands, 40% for Che. We are a vegetarian cafe and collective run by those who want to get involved. We're not a club, and we aren't run like a club. Free clinics are available, in particular the Haight/Ashbury Free Clinic located in, where else, the Haight district. Crash Pads - a lot of budding rollerblade enthusiasts use 'em on their elbows, knees sometimes. Visit Epicenter Zone (475 Valencia) for records, Gilman Street (924 Gilman St., Berkley) for bands. Avoid gossip, the local air is filled with enough already. Visit everywhere "The Streets Of San Francisco" was filmed. Become one of Lance Hahn's friends. Wear tie-dye. And that's all she wrote. - John Yates.

BUGOUT SOCIETY / PO Box 1014 / Yonkers, NY 10704 / 914-776-2279
Formed around 1986. Have 2 LP's "Just Say Yo!" and "Yo Baby 'Sup." Most live appearances end up in riots of pure carnivorous gluttony and it's always a big job for janitorial personnel.

THE DEVIATORS / 32 Saint James Place / Brooklyn, NY 11205 / 718-399-0308

"Strong point-blank guitars and a lively rhythm section...oodles of energy..." - Jersey Beat. "Cool pop-punk with great singing" - MRR. Influences include: Clash, Jam, SLF, Naked Raygun.

HUASIPUNGO / 80-50 Baxter Ave. #125 / Elmhurst, NY 11373 / 212-475-2806 (Amanda)

A punk-HC-Oil! (and a little ska) band that sings mostly in Spanish. There are a bunch of different social/political opinions within the band. Our influences cover an extensive spectrum of bands from Koratu to Poison Idea. Concentrated mostly on Latin American HC (Atoxxico, Kaos, Sociedad Violenta, etc.). We do covers of Latin bands just to let people know there are scenes outside the US and Europe. Oil!

HUMPER c/o of Mike Westfall & Lisa Gerhan / 221 Seward Place / Schenectady, NY 12305 / 518-372-2263

Two singers (one of whom will be going into labor about the time you read this), at least three guitarists, two bassists, a twelve year old drummer and Erik the conga player not much more you can say about a set up like this.

INTENT / 5 Oxford Rd. / Albany, NY 12203 / 518-438-4384 (Adam)
Intent is an old-style hardcore band—fast, tight, heavy, moody, and loud. We have a pretty upbeat feel that sometimes lapses into psychic terrorism. In other words, we once made a local music reviewer wet his pants. Music is our thing.

IRON PROSTATE c/o George Tabb / 45 Carmine St #1B / NY, NY 10014 / 212-989-7632

We are a small grassroots label which tries to give badly needed exposure to local bands that we like a lot. It also serves as an outlet for our own music. We have a wide range of musical interests. ## RADIO STATIONS

WIXQ 91.7 FM c/o Student Memorial Center / Millersville University / Millersville, PA 17551 / 717-872-3333 / Contact: Paul
Tuesday 2-4pm, wed. 7-9am, fri. 10am-2pm, Sat. 10pm-2:30am. We've got about 13 hours of hardcore/punk stuff, and if we had more stuff to play, we'd probably get more airtime.

WKDU 91.7 FM / Drexel University / 215-895-5917

Definitely one of the best in the area when it comes to hardcore/punk/alternative muzak that drives the parents nuts and sends the kids slamming into each other. Almost 60% of the airtime is dedicated to "alternative" music, while the rest goes to rap, ethnic, jazz and metal. Uncensored, gritty and obnoxious, this is what real radio should be.

RECORD STORES

3RD ST. JAZZ AND ROCK / 20 N. Third St., about half a block off Broad St. / Center City

One of the most comprehensive record stores in Center City-two floors of tapes, cd's and records await you. Upstairs is dedicated to jazz, blues and rap while downstairs is for all you way cool alternative/rock types. They have a decent selection of hardcore and punk, plus a pretty extensive collection of alternative music.

DIGITAL UNDERGROUND / 5th St. between South and Lombard / Philly

Check out at your own risk.

NOISE POLLUTION / 4th St., between South and Bainbridge / Philly

Former sight of the infamous Chaos Records. Check out at your own risk.

RECORD EXCHANGE / 5th and South, near the Gap / Philly
Lots of used records-good selection of new ones. They sometimes have a good mix of hardcore 7"s and zines. Set some time aside to browse through all the records-you might find a rare gem for cheap. Watch out on weekends-they're sometimes packed.

MISCELLANEOUS

CEDAR'S / 2nd St., half a block off of South St. / Center City
Mmm. Did someone say falafel? They have probably one of the best falafel sandwiches in Center City, but why don't you find out for yourself? They roll their sandwiches up in pita bread, rather than the typical "open faced" way. Warning: the waiters are incredibly snobby, don't punch 'em in the face. That's the way they are.

GOVINDA'S / Between 5th and 6th on South St., right across from Blockbuster Video / Philly

So you don't like Krishna's, but did you ever try their delicious vegetarian food? Then come on in and try their scrumptious buffet, chocked full of good stuff that mom neglected to tell you about. All you can eat is about $10 but you can pay by the pound and save some money because the last time I was there, I only got one plateful of food and was absolutely stuffed. If you're lucky enough, Ray Cappo might be floating around somewhere-avoid him if possible...

HARMONY VEGETARIAN RESTAURANT / 135 N. 9th St., near Arch St. / Philly

Take a stroll in Philadelphia's Chinatown-look at some dead meat in the market windows, browse through some tattoo art at Eddie's Tattoo and then head on over to Harmony. A nice Quaint place-all the food is vegetarian, so you don't have to worry about stray pieces of meat in yer rice. It's kinda pricey at about $10 for a complete meal, but you can always get an eggroll or steamed dumplings if you wanna spend less.

SABRA'S / Corner of 13th and Pine / Philly

Another tasty restaurant with a middle eastern theme. Delicious falafel stuffed with the usual stuff. About $3.25 per sandwich.

TACO HOUSE / Between 12th & 13th St. on Pine / Philly

Where do all the hip people go for their food? Taco House. Expect to find art students from hell talking about "arty" things and people complaining about the smoke from your cigarette. They have vegetarian taco's, burritos, taco salads, etc. Small, cheap and way rad-expect to spend $5 for a good meal.

TENNESSEE

BANDS

COMPULSIVE GAMBLERS c/o Jack / 901-274-1151

This band features former members of the Painkillers. They're a crazy Memphis style blues / rockabilly / punk combination. Their newest incarnation includes a violinist and they've recently pressed their own 7".

COUSIN IT / PO Box 120861 / Nashville, TN 37212 / 615-834-4790

Progressive punk rock from music city usa. A mix of early black flag meets a brick wall, makes a nasty mess, but it sounds good! Willing to play anywhere in the southeast for food & gas money.

MAN WITH GUN LIVES HERE / 1726 Madison Ave. / Memphis, TN 38104

A cacophony of noise, punk rock style with all kinds of crazy unexpected surprises thrown in, have an incredible homemade demo available.

PEZZ / PO Box 42185 / Memphis, TN 38104

An "emocore" band influenced by Bad Religion and other mainstays. They've mutated that predictable sound with a refreshing bit of ska, good musicianship and fresh lyrics from 17-year old vocalist Ceylon Mooney. A demo tape is available from Truant Records and hopefully a 7" will be recorded before Cey's voice changes.

TAINTSKINS / 562 S. Edgewood / Memphis, TN 38104 / 901-276-2864
Quality performance spectacle since 1989! Anytime, anyplace, heavy mellow high voltage insurrection. Indigenous punk music.

TIME FOR A CHANGE / PO Box 40163 / Memphis, TN 38174-0163

A good no-frills, full-on hardcore band who have a demo available. Order it! It's well worth the bucks and a great fanzine (No Clue) is included with every order.

$ LABELS

SUGARDITCH RECORDS / 1861 Poplar Ave. #3 / Memphis, TN 38104
Gina Barker and I are getting our own idea, Sugarditch Records, rolling with a TAINTSKINS 7" which should be out by late spring.

TRUANT RECORDS / PO Box 42185 / Memphis, TN 38104
Truant has several releases under their belt: two 7"s by Sobering Consequences (I believe their second is still available) an Econochrist 7" and an LP by Little Rock's Trusty. Pezz should be next.

PROMOTERS & VENUES

THE ANTENNA CLUB / 1588 Madison Ave. / Memphis, TN 38104 / 901-357-1728 (Mark Mcghee)

Still the mainstay. The club holds up to 400 people, all ages and over 21 shows can be arranged. Everyone from Fugazi to G.G. Allin, Rollins to R.E.M. has played the Antenna. Money-wise, it's somewhat risky, make sure you're billed with a local band to guarantee a crowd and make sure, somehow, that your gig is publicized. Do not mail material to the street address - they will not receive it.

DECADENCE PERFORMANCE HALL / 1655 Madison Ave. / Memphis, TN 38104 / 901-726-5636 (Buddy Douglas)

a coffee-fueled 4 piece power trio. Vague hints of subsonicsteel-jawritesofminutepopmeansnomen3, but we preger to call it post-rational vitamin rock. Single out in April on Full Drop Forged, tour (hopefully) this summer.

THE KRAYONS / 6237 Hanley / Corpus Christi, TX 78412 / 512-992-5856

A band of drunks and one straight guy that would fit in at an anti-Republican convention. Songs about soul searching, unobstructed love, fuking shit up and heartwarming anti-system diatribe set to a catchy yet sauce pounding beat.

YUCK c/o Paul Newman / 5402 Renwick #1095 / Houston, TX 77081 / 713-660-8703

Upbeat and energetic with a slight Superchunk and Dinosaur Jr. influence, but I hate making comparisons, as we try not to worry who we sound like, but we admittedly have similar feel. No recordings yet, but soon, and we really want to play anywhere.

WAMMO'S ORGANIC RUBBER MACHINE / PO Box 49799 / Austin, TX 78765

CJSF 93.9 FM (SFU TC-216 / Burnaby, B.C. / V5A 1S6) and John Clark, one of the DJ's there, sent us a massive list of (mostly British Columbian) Canadian contacts (radio, retail, publications, venues, etc.) on an IBM disk. We didn't print all the addresses because it was so massive and because we didn't know which ones were DIY listings and which ones weren't, but if you'd like to get a copy (on paper or disk), write a real nice letter and possibly a few bucks to John and maybe he'll send it to you.

MANITOBA

BANDS

BATSWEAT / Box 46035 / 6650 Roblin Blvd. / Winnipeg, MB / R3R 3S3
Very heavy, at times ultra-fast, at times slow and kinda weird.

BREATH GRENADES / PO Box 25055 / 1650 Main St. / Winnipeg, MB / R2V 4C7

Winnipeg's oldest punkers spew forth a brand of thug rockin' ear swill, bass, synth, and percussion, landing them somewhere amidst the arrogance of Fear and the experimentalism of Hawkwind mixed with the insanity of TG fueled by Eno meets The Ramones.

HOUSE OF PANCAKES / 237 Elm St. / Winnipeg, MB / R3M 3N5 / 204-488-0659

Somewhat goofy (but not a joke band) punk rock, which tries at times to be heavy, with moderate success.

PROPAGANDHI c/o Chris / 42 Shoreham Bay / Winnipeg, MB / R3R 3J6 / 204-896-0536 (Chris), 204-488-7434 (John)

Born Against meets NoFX (??). Premise of band: critical means of expression, maintain stupid sense of humor. Anti-authoritarians that fall down a lot and laugh at farts. Plenty of live experience. Tour U.S. in July; need help. Any out of town shows will be seriously considered for future.

TOOTHPICK HERCULES / 237 Elm St. / Winnipeg, MB / R3M 3N5 / 204-488-0659

Kinda melodic but not "whoa whoa" punk. Influences include

Jawbreaker, Samiam, Dinosaur Jr., Fugazi, but high energy!

#1 - 40 pages, #2 - 28 pages, #3 - ?? / The first two are 5 1/2 x 8 1/2 but i'll be experimenting with sizes and formats in oncoming issues / Each costs $1.00 ppd or trade. Stamps are IRC's alone are way tons fine by me.

...Knife is mostly a poetry, art, photos, stream-o-consciousness creative type thingy. Any/all submissions are welcome, because i'm sure the planet has it's fill of my cheesy angst-ridden poetic working!! So send your own in!!! I'm not all too concerned with the typical music/interviews/reviews thing, there's enough zines like that out here. The key words are creativity, self-expression and communication!

MISCELLANEOUS

All basic health care in Britain is free
There are many veggie/vegan eating places around the student campus areas of most major towns.

LONDON: Advice: When arriving in London if you're going to travel by underground and bus it's worth getting a one-day travel card for all zones, otherwise a couple of trips can easily cost you more than a card. Warning: it is not easy anymore to dodge the tube fares in London unless you know the stations well!

HACKNEY: in the Northeast of London has a lot of squats and a constant turnover of short term squat centres and/or pubs. Recently a popular veggie non-squat restaurant called Pumpkins has been set up on Clarence Road, Lower Clayton, Hackney.

THE ADVISORY SERVICE FOR SQUATTERS (ASS), based at 2 St. Paul's Road, NI is open weekday afternoons to give advice on squatting rights and wrongs in the UK

BANDS

BLAST OF SILENCE c/o Ulrich von Bremen / Gertrudenstr. 1 B / 2400 Lübeck 1 / Germany / Tel. 49-451-33011

Punk/HC somewhere between Ramones and emocore with some excursions to related subjects. We are interested to get in touch with a label. Also to take part in a sampler-project or a split record. Also looking for bands to play gigs together.

CLUSTER BOMB UNIT c/o Oliver / PO Box 111 / 7453 Burladingen 2 / Germany / Tel. 49-7475-7132

We started in early 1990 with me on drums/vocals, Werner on guitar and Mike on bass. We play sort of old U.K./Swedish hardcore. Influences are Discharge, Crude S.S., Doom, Varukers, Anti-Cimex, ENT, etc... We have no records yet but we are trying to record something soon with a new singer. Also, I'm doing a video compilation which will hopefully be out soon. It contains about 50 bands in 3 hours. If you are interested in that, get in touch. I also make copies on NTSC system so you can also watch it.

INFIRM / Henrik Zenker / Neckarstr. 71 / W-7730 VS-S / Germany

BONZEN RECORDS / Zündi M. Laszlo / Böckhstr. 39 / 1000 Berlin 61 / Germany / Tel. 49-30-6940-1605

Not just another label. Formats: CD, LP, 7" (Tapes licenced to QORYO in Poland). The bands: Assassins of God, Disaster Area, Flower Buds, Schwarze Feuer, Th' Inbred. To display original and moving music, especially from before unknown bands, in a fair and professional way, is the practical side of things. The important aspect is the relationship with the musicians. Band and label melt into a family and grow together. All this should be self-evident in the HC-scene but the "market" blows away many people's ideals.

CRUCIAL RESPONSE RECORDS c/o Peter Hoeren / Kaisersfeld 98 / 4200 Oberhausen / W - Germany / Tel.49-208-870657

RADIO DREYECKLAND c/o Final Solution (Mike) / Adler Str. 12 / 7800 Freiburg / W - Germany

I can offer some help to get gigs in Germany, but I'm not a professional promoter and I'm not able to organize tours. I got a list of 30 venues in Germany & Netherlands & Switzerland. First I can send bands the list, so send a self addressed envelope to the above address. Second I can ring up some contacts who set up gigs, but these are low budget plans which means not more than $100 - $300 a show. I love Econochrist, they still play for little money.

Papari which means bollock is one of the oldest zines in Athens. It started in 1986 mainly as a musical zine covering HC and alternative bands world wide, but over the last 6 years spread it's tentacles into a wider spectrum of topics. In its 11 issues so far, it's covered zines, movies, underground movements, animal rights, ecology, counter-culture, conspiracy theories, anti-fascist actions, squats, etc., always through a personal humorous approach. Papari is a weapon against the ever-growing stupidity both nationally and internationally against apathy and misery in everyday life. It is engaged in the international fight against oppression, religious and mostly Christian stupidity, commercialization, fashion, nationalism, fascism, racism or any kind of discrimination. No Gods, No Masters.

Why the fuck I did it myself - and am still doing it today!!
Also known as: alienation and frustration overcome by scattered moments of exictation.

by Aron Naught.

About five years ago in a cramped, smoky basement called the House O' Voodew, I grew into the underground methods of organization and out of mainstream force-feedings. Equipped with six-foot ceilings, cheap beer and active minds; my friends and I created a space for ourselves and other weirdos in this basement. Not that it was the most original or righteous subculture, but it did provide a fresh source of entertainment, education and social/political relations beyond the typical college crap offered.

It was weird living in this mid-size college town in southern Illinois called Carbondale. The name alone implies a backwoods, backwoods type of environment, and not much was truly going on due to the lack of an urban landscape. Enough pissed-off young people existed to do something about it, and with some inspiration from others, I was motivated to create my own reality.

If I wanted to see butt-stompin' bands such as Neurosis (the first and best band I ever booked), Plaid Retina, Generation Waste, Victim's Family or Dissent, then I had to do it myself, or help my friends do it. Otherwise, these shows would not have been provided for myself or anyone else in that town who wanted to experience the shrill of p-rock, beyond the scope of a couple local bands (Diet Christ R.I.P.). It was not an ego trip but rather a necessity to my reality construction.

It was an essential time when I finally took action to alter my existence by flexing what free will I could muster up and helping facilitate a collective reality through music, distribution of literature, and setting up cultural events. Out of boredom, frustration, and alienation from society we took a serious jab at putting some intensity into an otherwise mundane environment.

In other words, I began to "book my own fuckin' life!" instead of bowing down, bending over and letting the mainstream consumer think tanks control my [profane] existence through subliminated psycho-sexual t.v. indoctrination disguised as a religious commodity. Shucking these first corporate shackles, I set out upon my way to change the way I live, and to inspire others into action.

Of course, to this day I am still not completely free of the corporate handcuffs, but creating my own reality through the punk scene initially opened my mind as much as anything else ever has. One wrist has slipped out on its own, with the other close behind. Once you've kicked that door wide open, there's no turning back...

After graduating from the higher brainwashing education of college, I'm back at it again. Fuck this thang authority figures call "the real world". It's a world full of endless timeclocks melting your brain into conforming mold of living. I chose to get back to my punk rock basics: putting out another publication called Art Flux (I used to do Extortion), starting another grassroots musical project, helping put together a community center and writing for Profane Existence, amongst other things.

So get off your apathetic ass (as I scream this to myself everyday), shake yer boody at the system, do the twist on blind consumerism, and act as a catalyst within whatever sort of "scene" you choose. All the resources are easily acquired, so what the fuck are some folks waiting for? A nuclear war to make them self-sufficient?!! ARRGGHHH!!!

So until the bomb drops, turning the sky into a deathly beautiful array of orange, red, blue and purple hues, I will organize my own fuckin' existence, thank you!!!

Here's some stuff we learned doing the Raw Power & Riistetyt U.S. tour in 1984 and the Follow Fashion Monkeys & Indigesti U.S. tour in 1986. 1. Transportation is crucial. If you can get a car or van that runs & is dependable as you can get it you hopefully avoid blown engines etc. Maybe your U.S. band has a vehicle? Or you could even buy one used and some band (etc.) member keeps it after the tour? 2. The phone is a friend for setting up gigs as much in advance as possible and for continuing to set up gigs as the tour progresses and to stay in touch with your homebase, if you find that to be useful.

Homebase can get calls from promoters for you and can somehow help you out if say someone in your group gets lost or there's some emergency or other shit that happens. 3. It's worth it to ask the promoter in advance to help you set up a place for you to sleep over while you're in their city, often it's a living room of a local punk. Or ask around that night of the gig. 4. Avoid using credit cards, if you have one, since it's an easy way to spend money you don't have, even though it helps make the tour go more smoothly. 5. You don't usually seem to have much to say about how a local promoter promotes your upcoming gig. Maybe you can mail them some poster or flyer or record (jacket?) to help encourage some distribution of flyers in that city. You might ask the promoter about their usual promotion activities. Sometimes you get an experienced promoter, sometimes it's a newcomer. 6. To find a promoter initially, read this resource zine. Before that it was smart to go through the scene reports in MRRs &/or look through other U.S. zines &/or ask punk types you may be in contact with by mail or that you otherwise know in other cities about who to get in contact with to set up your show in their city, who knows maybe that person will help you out. 7. Avoid staying in hotels, it's obviously more expensive and boring, since hanging out with some locals is funner than a sterile hotel room. 8. I recommend you avoid fast food joints. It seems like the food is cheap but it adds up quick. Maybe hit a supermarket and bring a cooler or two along to make the cool drinks last. 9. Try to set up the tour in a geographically sensible way so you so as little back tracking as possible, (duh). 10. Being part of a tour, even just part of it, can be great, I recommend the experience to everyone who has the time etc.

11. It's nice if you have your own equipment. If you borrow some from the local band it's nice not to break it, which can, of course, lead to grief and financial hassles. 12. If you can figure out how to do a tour without losing money, or know someone who does, talk with them, and then tell me how to do it. 13. If you want, have someone stay up with the driver to cut down on the possibility of crashing and dying. 14. Most of us liked to take a shower whenever we had the opportunity, which was now and then. 15. You may as well try to book every single day of your tour since some gigs will get cancelled for whatever reason. At least try to have a gig going each Friday and Saturday. 16. You might try avoiding the snow and it's problems of winter and watch out for overheated engines in summer. 17. There must be 1000's of people around who have done this, getting contacts and insight from them is usually a plus. 18. If you want, try to soundboard record & even video your gigs. 19. Most people don't get many opportunities to do this, enjoy it, we did. 95% of the people we met were great, thanks. See ya, ChrisBCT, PO Box 16205, San Diego, CA 92176. Yes, BCT is still around.
